Presenter Good evening and welcome to Celebrity Interview. I'm Paula Beacon and my guest tonight is Hollywood film star, Mike Changer. Welcome to New York, Mike.

Mike Thanks, Paula. I'm really happy to be here.

Presenter Is this your first visit to the USA, Mike?

Mike Yes, it is. And I'm having a great time here. Everyone is so friendly.

Presenter Now, Mike. You've recently finished a new film called Going Home. What's it about?

Mike Well, it's the story of a 15-year-old boy who argues with his parents. He has a difficult life, but he gets a job and goes to university and becomes a teacher. When he's 25, he decides to go back and see his parents at Christmas.

Presenter So this is a film for Christmas?

Mike That's right.

Presenter It's very different from your last three films, which were about vampires.

Mike Yes, but it was time to do something different.

Presenter Are you making another film at the moment?

Mike No, I'm writing a book for children.

Presenter How did that happen?

Mike Well, I got married three years ago and we recently had a baby girl. I wanted to do something for my daughter.

Presenter Is it easy to write a children's book?

Mike Actually, it's quite difficult. But I studied English at university, and I worked on a children's magazine for two years before I became an actor, so I have some experience.

Presenter Well, thank you for coming to talk to me and good luck with the film and the new book.

Mike Thank you, too.

John Not another celebrity magazine, Mel! Why do you buy them?

Mel I like reading about famous people. Have you ever met anyone famous, John?

John No, I don't think so. Oh, I saw that TV presenter, Shirley something. I can't remember her name. She was at the post office. And I spoke to the actor from the James Bond films – at the theatre where I worked.

Mel Oh, right!

2

Mark Do you want to go to the cinema tonight, Sally?

Sally What's on?

Mark The Hobbit.

Sally Oh, I've seen that. I saw it last week in London with Jenny. Is there anything else?

Mark There's Johnny English.

Sally Oh, I haven't seen that, but I love Rowan Atkinson's films. I thought Mr Bean was really funny.

3

Rachel Hi, Brian.

Brian Rachel, I need your help. I want to take Liz out for a meal, but I'm not sure where to go.

Rachel Have you tried that Chinese restaurant on the High Street? I went there last week. The food was really nice and it wasn't expensive.

Brian I don't really like Chinese food. What's that new Greek restaurant like? I've never eaten Greek food.

Rachel I don't know. Sorry.

4

Ricky Neil, what are you doing here?

Neil I'm looking for some paint. Clare wants to decorate the living room.

Ricky But you've decorated it once this year.

Neil We painted the bedroom last month, but not the living room. Anyway, why are you here, Ricky?

Ricky I need to get some wood to make shelves for the kitchen.

5

Dan Have you ever been to Italy, Mary?

Mary Yes, my dad's parents were Italian, and we visited them every year when I was a child.

Dan What's Naples like?

Mary Oh, that's in the south. I've only been to the south once. My grandparents lived in Milan, in the north. I'd like to go back to the south, though.

Dan Let's go together. We can get a car and drive round.
