

Summary 4 (exam)

Review the Future Story and Conditionals.

LISTENING

Listen to three conversations between different family members.

Match them to cartoons A-C. What are the people talking about?

2. Listen again and fill in the missing words.

1

A: So what are you going to do next year, dear? Are you going to go to university? Adam?

Can you _____ me?

B: Sorry, Gran. What did you say?

A: I said, 'Are you going to go to university _____?'

B: No, Gran. I've already told you loads of times. I'm not going to go to university. I'm going to look for a job. I need to _____ some money.

A: All right, dear, you don't need to _____. I can hear perfectly well, thank you. What's the time now?

B: _____. Shall I make you a cup of tea?

A: Yes, please, dear. That'd be very nice.

2

A: Bye. See you tomorrow.

B: Bye. Hey, what do you mean tomorrow? _____ you coming back tonight?

A: No, I told you about it yesterday. I'm going to a party _____. I'm staying the night there.

B: Who _____ is going?

A: Oh, just the usual crowd. You don't know _____.

B: Well, make sure you don't go to bed too late.

And don't forget to...

A: Bye!

B: Where's your _____? You can't go out like that.

It's going to be cold tonight!

A: Bye!

3

A: Can I use your car _____?

B: No, you can't.

A: You said you _____ it. Why can't I borrow it?

B: Because you _____ after it. You'll drive too fast.

A: I won't. I promise I'll drive really _____. I'll be really careful.

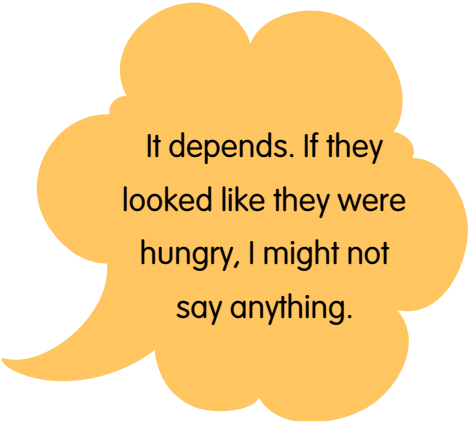

B: Oh, all right, then.

A: Thanks. See you.

CONDITIONALS

What would you do if...?

1. you saw someone stealing bread in the supermarket?
2. you found a bag of money in the street?
3. you inherited (получил в наследство) a house on the other side of the world?
4. you found out that one of your colleagues was taking drugs?
5. you heard someone saying bad things about your friend?
6. you saw a very young child smoking in the street?

It depends. If they looked like they were hungry, I might not say anything.

Complete the sentences with the words in brackets. Use the first or second conditional.

1. If they offer me the job _____ (I / take it).
2. If my car wasn't being repaired, _____ give you a lift. (I / give you a lift)
3. If I had Emily's number, _____ (I / call her)
4. You'll miss the train if _____ (you / not hurry up)
5. If I see John, _____ (I / tell him the news)
6. Rob wouldn't send you flowers if _____. (he / not love you)
7. If my mother didn't live on her own, _____. (she / be happier)
8. If it rains on Saturday, _____ (they / cancel the match)
9. You wouldn't spend so much money if _____ (you / not eat out every night).
10. Rita won't go to work tomorrow if _____. (she / not feel better)

WRITING: Formal/Informal writing

1 Tanya is a student in Manchester. Her boyfriend, Matt, is a student in London. Read the email she wrote after visiting him. Answer the questions.

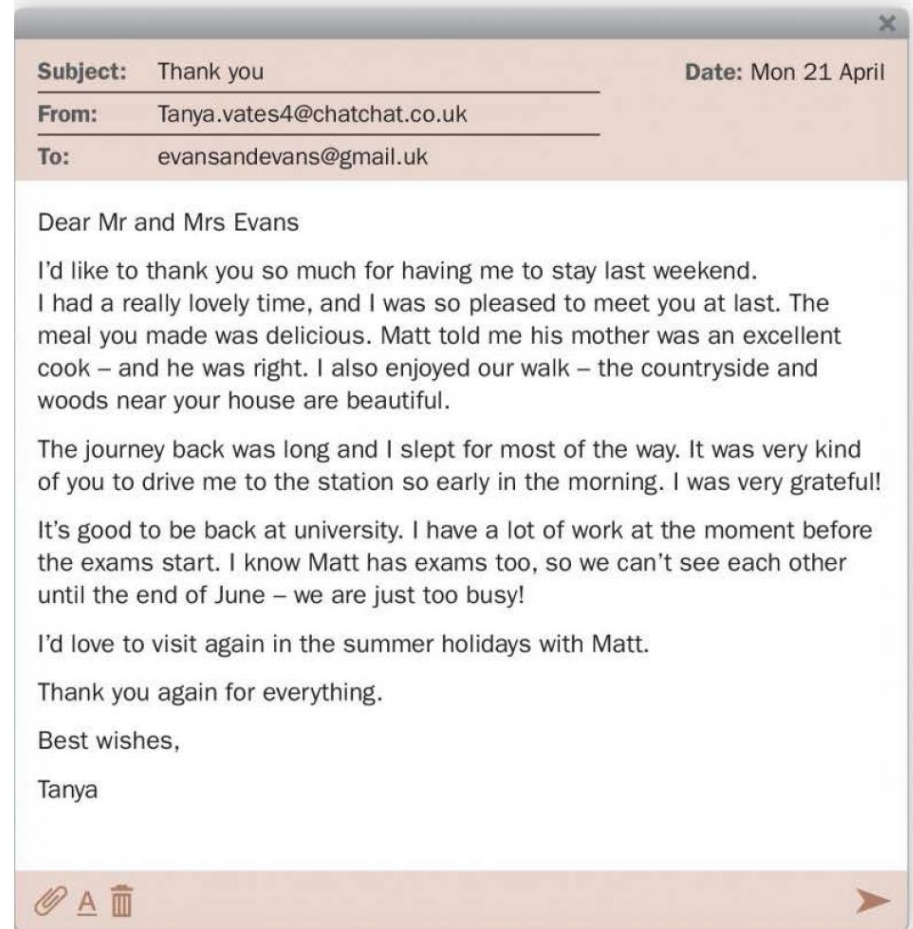

- 1 Did Tanya enjoy the weekend?
- 2 Is Matt a good cook?
- 3 Why does Tanya want the recipe?
- 4 How did Tanya travel back to Manchester?
- 5 Why did she sleep on the journey?
- 6 Why is Matt 'a star'?
- 7 When would she like to see Matt again?
- 8 Is the email formal or informal?
- 9 Did she visit Matt before or after their exams?

2 Tanya also stayed with Matt's parents for a weekend. Read her thank-you email. Answer the questions.

- 1 When did she visit his parents?
- 2 Was it the first time?
- 3 What did she do there?
- 4 Did she wait until after the exams to see Matt?

3 The email to Matt's parents is more formal than the email to Matt. Compare the beginnings and endings, then compare line by line. What other differences can you find?

4 Write an informal thank-you email after a visit to a friend. How can you change it to a more formal style?

ANSWERS:

- 1 A: So what are you going to do next year, dear? Are you going to go to university? Adam?
Can you hear me?
- B: Sorry, Gran. What did you say?
- A: I said, 'Are you going to go to university next year?'
- B: No, Gran. I've already told you loads of times. I'm not going to go to university. I'm going to look for a job. I need to earn some money.
- A: All right, dear, you don't need to shout. I can hear perfectly well, thank you. What's the time now?
- B: Ten to four. Shall I make you a cup of tea?
- A: Yes, please, dear. That'd be very nice.

- 2 A: Bye. See you tomorrow.
- B: Bye. Hey, what do you mean tomorrow? Aren't you coming back tonight?
- A: No, I told you about it yesterday. I'm going to a party at Katie's. I'm staying the night there.
- B: Who else is going?
- A: Oh, just the usual crowd. You don't know any of them.
- B: Well, make sure you don't go to bed too late.
And don't forget to...
- A: Bye!
- B: Where's your coat? You can't go out like that.
It's going to be cold tonight!
- A: Bye!

- 3 A: Can I use your car tonight?
- B: No, you can't.
- A: You said you didn't need it. Why can't I borrow it?
- B: Because you won't look after it. You'll drive too fast.
- A: I won't. I promise I'll drive really slowly. I'll be really careful.
- B: Oh, all right, then.
- A: Thanks. See you.

Complete the sentences with the words in brackets. Use the first or second conditional.

1. If they offer me the job I'll take (I / take it).
2. If my car wasn't being repaired, I'd give you a lift. (I / give you a lift)
3. If I had Emily's number, I'd call her. (I / call her)
4. You'll miss the train if you don't hurry up. (you / not hurry up)
5. If I see John, I'll tell him the news. (I / tell him the news)

6. Rob wouldn't send you flowers if he didn't love you. (he / not love you)
7. If my mother didn't live on her own, she'd be happier. (she / be happier)
8. If it rains on Saturday, they'll cancel the match. (they / cancel the match)
9. You wouldn't spend so much money if you didn't eat out every night. (you / not eat out every night).
10. Rita won't go to work tomorrow if she doesn't feel better. (she / not feel better)