Audio script

Presenter: It's two o'clock and it's time for 'I can't believe it!' – simple things that make you really angry. This week we're talking about shopping and we want to hear about any problems you've had, and any advice you can give. First, I've got Jenny on the phone. So Jenny, what happened?

Jenny: Well, I'll give you some advice first. You should always compare prices. You shouldn't just buy the first thing you see.

Presenter: That sounds easy, but we all forget sometimes... Tell us more Jenny...

Jenny: Well, I really like my morning cup of coffee and I've wanted a new coffee machine for a long time. So, finally when I had enough money, I went into town and found one I really liked. It was a bit expensive, but I was excited... so I bought it right there and then.

Presenter: Sounds like a good idea. But?

Jenny: Yesterday, I was in another part of town and saw it in a different shop for half the price!

Presenter: Oh no!

Jenny: Right! It was actually fifty per cent cheaper than what I paid. But that's not the end of the problem. I didn't keep the receipt because I really liked it, so I can't return it and get my money back. So my other piece of advice is 'keep the receipt'!

Presenter: Always good advice, thanks Jenny. So over to Luke – Luke, are you there?

Luke: Yes, hello. Well, I also bought something too quickly. Last month I had a job interview and, on the morning of the interview, I got my only good shirt really dirty. I didn't have much time, so I went quickly to the shopping centre, found a shirt my size and bought it.

Presenter: OK, so what was the problem?

Luke: When I got home I tried it on and it was a really unusual shape. I mean really unusual. It was very small in the middle and the arms were very long. Seriously, I looked really strange! The worse thing is that there wasn't enough time to change it – I had to go to the interview like that!

Presenter: That's not good. Oh no.

Luke: Oh yes! So, my advice is: you should always try clothes on in the shop.

Presenter: OK, thank you. Lots of good advice there. We'll be back next week at...
