

Summary 2(3)-12

CLOTHES (ACCESSORIES)

What else can you wear? Accessories, jewellery. What else? You can also wear perfume.

Read the words (don't forget about the word "accessories". Write down the missing words (you should already know some of them). Check yourself in the summary of the level.

LET'S GO SHOPPING!

1. Listen to the conversations and answer the questions.

1. What item is each customer interested in?
2. Does the customer buy anything?

2. Listen again and answer the questions.

3. Listen to Track 2 and complete the sentences.

POLITE NOISE: SHOPPING FOR CLOTHES

Read the PN and memorize it

Remember:

- I'm good. In this context it doesn't mean «мне хорошо» or «я хороший». It means «спасибо, не надо». It's very colloquial (разговорное выражение).

A: Would you like a cup of tea?

B: I'm good, thanks.

A: Do you want to go for a swim in that dirty river?

B: Um, I'm good.

- Pay cash or pay by cash (the first option is more common)

- Do you have a (name of the store) card? Вставляем название магазина.

Homework 12 (level 3)

4. Translate. Look up the words you don't know in a dictionary:

Когда я начал работать в 1948, все было по-другому. Все платили наличными, потому что кредитных карт не существовало. Теперь надо просить их дать карту и ввести свой ПИН-код.

Магазины были меньше в те времена. Если клиент искал что-то определенное, например платье особого цвета, или если туфли не подходили, и им нужен был размер поменьше, нам приходилось самим шить (делать) их для него.

Вы никогда не слышали, чтобы люди говорили «Я просто смотрю», потому что люди ходили по магазинам только если они хотели купить что-то.

В маленьких магазинах продавцы знали большую часть своих клиентов. Сейчас первое, что ты говоришь, это «Я могу вам помочь?» А в те времена мы говорили: «Привет, Джон, как дела?»
